As Sales Coordinator for the company, I have dealt with Alan Firmin transport now for a period of 11 years. I have always found their services to be efficient and their staff extremely helpful.

Alan Firmin transport provide a prompt, reliable service to my customers and where problems may arise, they would usually contact our customer directly to minimize delay and confusion if a delivery is running late.

I would have no problem in giving my customers Alan Firmin transport as a point of contact if they were in need of any transport services, whether for a full load or just a single pallet.
